COMPANY OVERVIEW

About Us

Mughal Partners + Thompson and Law Associates is a “Government, Law, Business Policy Advisory Firm” that provides expert guidance and strategic advice to businesses and government entities on matters related to regulatory compliance, global investment, public policy, negotiations, economic development, and legal matters. We specialize in navigating the complex intersections between government regulations, legal frameworks, and business strategies to help clients achieve their objectives while adhering to the requisite legal and regulatory requirements.

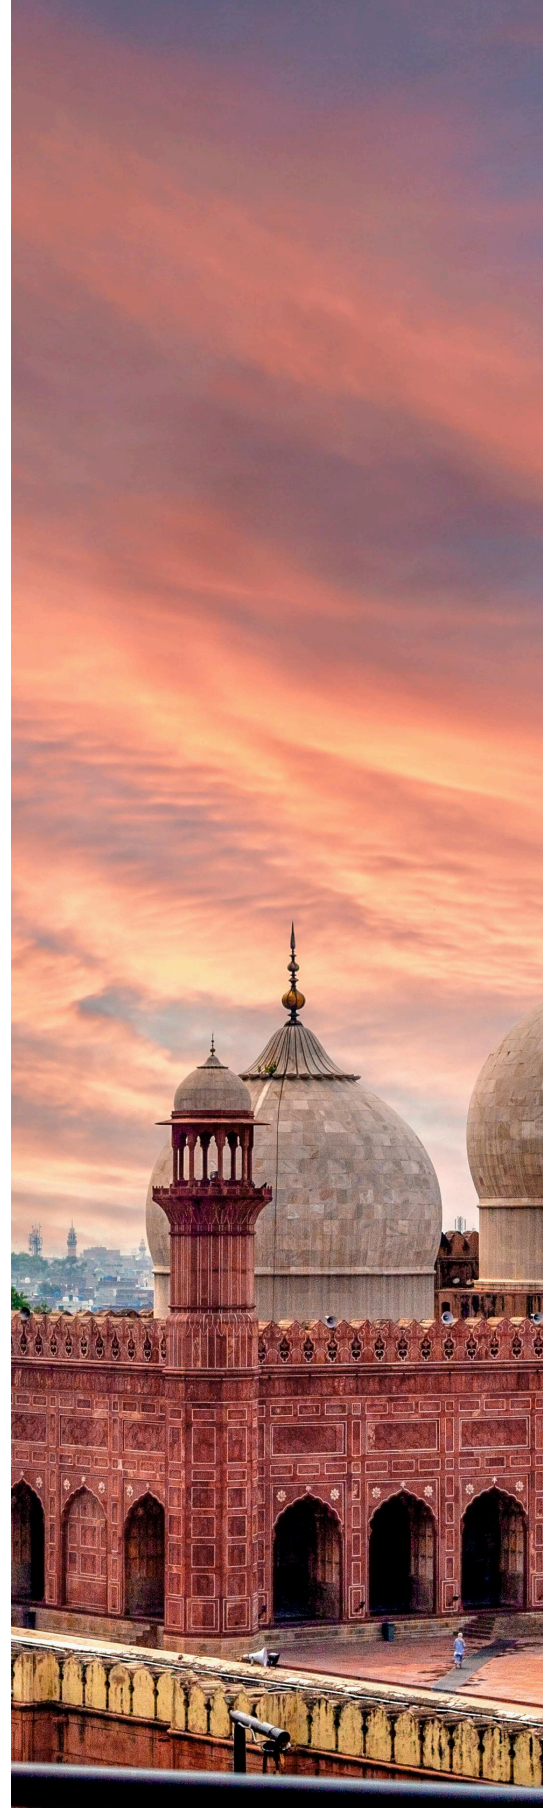

U.S. PAKISTAN PRACTICE

Mughal Partners + Thompson & Associates has strong connections and commitment to Pakistan.

We focused on providing guidance to Pakistani investors and companies interested in doing business in the United States. Areas of regulatory guidance that are typically provided to our U.S. Pakistan Practice clients include business expansion, real estate, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, international tax, economic development, cross border and customs, e-commerce, intellectual property, regulations and compliance, and dispute resolution.

Our experience assisting global clients includes:

- working with investment firms and funds investing in U.S. real estate
- handling licensing distribution and joint venture agreements, as well as all aspects of developments and operation of small, middle-market, and large businesses
- assisting companies in identifying and structuring financing opportunities
- assisting companies in identifying opportunities and getting licenses from the U.S. government at the state, federal, and local levels.

WHAT WE DO

Regulatory Compliance: We help companies understand and implement necessary legal standards and practices to avoid penalties and legal disputes.

Government Relations: We build and maintain relationships with key government officials and stakeholders to foster business growth and success.

Business Strategies: We assist businesses in understanding market trends, identifying growth opportunities, and developing policies.

Legal Guidance: We offer expert advice on legal matters, helping clients understand and manage legal risks associated with their operations.

REPUTATION

There's a reason that our reputation precedes us: our established history has garnered us some of the top connections in government and the global business world. Our team is well composed of professionals with substantial backgrounds in all levels of government – including state lawmakers, business leaders, and former top staff members. We combine our government, legal, and business knowledge with our experience, integral intergovernmental relationships, and strategic partnerships to exceed clients' goals.
